NAPOLEON'S "WANDERING HEIR."

For years it has been universally believed that the direct line of the "Little Corporal" became extinct in the person of the unfortunate prince, and, although various rumors relative to a secret marriage were prevalent at the time of his decease, they were generally regarded as the creations of an idle brain. Events which have subsequently transpired give these reports a semblance of truth, and, to render them still more plausible, it is a well-known fact that the late Emperor of the French spared neither expense nor labor in forming a complete collection of the correspondence and private papers of "le fils de l'homme."

It appears, however, that these writings were not the only links which united the present with the past; for, in the summer of 1871, an individual who bore an extremely striking likeness to the Bonaparte family, made his appearance at Ischl, and was fined by the district court and expelled from the Austrian dominions for having made an objectionable entry in his "wander-book"—a sort of journeyman's passport. He was a tailor by trade, and, for several years previous to this occurrence, had been living at Wurzen, in the kingdom of Saxony, and also at Stuttgardt, under the name of Carl Gustave Ludwig, and in both of these places he had distinguished himself by his diligence, skill, and modesty. His intimate acquaintances affirmed that, in spite of his humble occupation, he had always asserted his claim to the name and title of Prince Joseph Eugene Napoleon Bonaparte, and according to his own account, it would seem as if he was an issue of a secret marriage of the Duke of Reichstadt with a Hungarian countess He stated that, when quite young, his mother was induced by Prince Metternich to apprentice him to a tailor in Wurzen named Ledwig, as a means of getting rid of him, and in order to facilitate her second marriage in Saxony. As a further proof of his origin, he declared that there was an author living at Leipsic, but formerly a Hungarian officer, who had been a witness to the marriage, and who would, if it became necessary for him to make known his rank and title, supply him with the requisite documents in order to compel the countess to recognize his birth and parentage. After leaving Stuttgardt, he traveled through Germany, Switzerland and a part of Austria, earning his livelihood as a tailor, and maintaining his claim to a princely rank, but never attempting to obtain money or credit by it. On returning to Stuttgardt, in November of the same year, he found that his conviction and punishment had been mentioned in the papers of that place, and he accordingly published an explanation in the Burger Zeitung, in which he affirmed that he was not punished for claiming his name and title, his right to which the court of Ischl had in no wise disputed, but merely for writing it of his own accord in his passport before he had succeeded in establishing his identity before a court of law. The reputed prince is still living, and the Cross,—one of the leading newspapers in Germany,—in an article written at the time, states that only does he bear a good character for his steadiness and general good conduct, but he also produces a favorable impression by his manners.—From "Napoleon II," by Langdon Greenwood, in Scribners for March.

TESTING THE ENDURANCE OF STONE.

At a recent meeting of the Philosophical Society of Manchester, Dr. R. Argus Smith said that he had observed that the particles of stone most liable to be in long contact with rain from town atmospheres, were most subject to decay. Believing the acids in the air to be the cause, he supposed that the endurance of a silicious stone might be somewhat measured by measuring its resistance to acids. He proposed therefore to use strong solutions, and thus approach to the action of long periods of time. He tries a few specimens in this way and with the most promising results. Pieces of about an inch cube were broken by the fall of a hammer, and the number of blows counted. Similar pieces were steeped in weak acid; both sulphuric and muriatric were tried, and the latter preferred. The number of blows now necessary was counted. Some sandstone gave way at once and crumbled into sand, some resisted a long time, some very dense silicious stone was little affected by it,—had stood unaltered on a bridge in a country place for centuries.

In this country the endurance of stone depends to a great extent on its power to resist the action of frost, as we may easily satisfy ourself by the inspection of the walls that have just passed through a very trying winter. The determination of the power to resist this action is accomplished by soaking the stone in a strong solution of sulphate of soda, and then permitting the salt to crystalize in its pores; repeating the operation a few times, the stone soon begins to show the effect, which is measured by weighing the particles broken off. Another method of estimating the same disintegrating action is that proposed by Prosessor J. C. Draper; of alternately heating the stone and then quenching it in cold water and weighing the detached particles.—Scribner's.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS:
Friday Evening, March 7.

GEN. MOORE.

There is a rumor on our streets this morning that our late representative in Congress, Gen. Jesse H. Moore, will in all probability be appointed by the President as Minister to the Republic of Mexico. The rumor seems to be regarded as not altogether unfounded, and we trust that it may prove true—Gen. Moore would represent our government abroad with a degree of ability and dignity that would not only do credit to himself, but would also reflect honor upon the country.

LIABILITIES OF COMMON CARRIERS.—The United States Supreme Court has decided that a common carrier is liable to the extent of his route, and until he has delivered the property to the next carrier. In the case passed upon by the United States Supreme Court there was on the receipt for the goods, given at the time of the shipment, a condition that all goods were at the risk of the owners while in the warehouses of the company, unless a loss should occur through its negligence, but the court held that, in the absence of an express agreement to that effect by the shipper, he was not bound by such condition. This decision is almost directly in opposition to a recent decision of the Supreme Court of this State, that a railway company is not liable for the loss of a consignment stored in its warehouse.

IN the list of those members of the late Congress who voted for the increase of their salaries just as their term was closing were three of our Illinois members—Snapp, of Joliet, Robinson, of the Springfield district, and McNeeley, of Petersburg. Snapp and McNeeley retire to private life, and deserve to stay there as long as they live. Robinson will, unfortunately, be a member of the next Congress. Robinson and McNeeley are Democrats; Snapp is an anti civil-service reform Republican. Both the Illinois Senators—Trumbull and Logan—voted for the measure.

Back Again.—Mr. L. F. Rude, who resided here some years ago, has returned, and has opened a merchant tailoring establishment in the second story, over Barber's shoe store. He is prepared to manufacture to order all kinds of garments for men's and boys' wear, including perfect fitting shirts and pantaloon drawers. Mr. Rude would be pleased to receive a share of public patronage, being confident of his ability to please those who give him their orders.

WENDELL PHILLIPS introduced Mr. Beecher at Chicago in the following short and pithy speech: "Ladies and gentlemen: The committee have kindly allowed me the pleasure of announcing to you that Mr. Beecher is ready to begin. They said something about introducing him. If there is anybody here that does not know him I will introduce him. [Laughter.] But the word reminds me of the only occasion for twenty years that I have ever had of being on a platform with Mr. Beecher. It was just the length of time ago when the abolitionists were mobbed at the city of New York, and our friend sent us word from across the ferry that if we would come to his church he would give us an audience without a mob. And he was then kind enough to show me 2,000 people whom no name but his could have thus work collected. The subject was 'compulsory education in the city of New York, and freedom of speech.' The programme is slightly changed to-night. I introduce him to 2,000 people, whom no name but his could have called; and they wish to hear no voice but his, and I beg him to begin." [Applause.]

THE Bank of England covers five acres of ground, and employs 900 clerks. There are no windows on the street. Light is admitted through open courts; no mob could take the bank, therefore, without cannon to batter the immense walls. The clock in the center of the bank has fifty dials attached to it. Large cisterns are sunk in the court, and engines in perfect order are always in readiness in case of fire. This bank was incorporated in 1691. Capital, $90,000,000.

AN ingenious machine has been invented for spreading mortar on walls. It consists of a trough three and a half feet long, furnished with two trowels, one above the other, and the mortar is spread by the moving of the trough up the wall between two upright scantling, by means of pulleys worked by a crank. The inventor claims that the machine effects great saving of labor, time and expense.

ON the passage of the bill to increase the pay of members of Congress, the vote in the House was, yeas 103, nays 91. Of the yeas, 49 were Republicans and 54 Democrats and Liberal Republicans. Of the 49 Republican yeas, 18 were Southern members. Of the 103 yeas, 62 were outgoing members, that is to say, not elected to the Forty-third Congress.

UNITED STATES TROOPS CONQUER A PEACE.

The Senate in Executive Session.

POSITION OF THE PRESIDENT ON THE CUBAN QUESTION.

DIPLOMATIC CHANGES TO BE MADE.

The Pomeroy Case in the Kansas Legislature.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, March 6.—A crowd of citizens, about three hundred strong, armed with pistols, made an attempt to capture the district court rooms to-night, about 10 o'clock. The court was guarded by the metropolitan police under the command of Longstreet, armed with Winchester rifles and artillery. Several rounds were fired, one citizen was killed and about a dozen wounded. While the fight was in progress, General Smith appeared with a company of United States troops, and ordered Waggenian and his men to disperse and go to their homes, which order was obeyed.

At half past two o'clock this morning General Badger with eighty men and one piece of artillery, reached the seventh precinct station, and making the rear of the building advanced toward it, and sent officer Murray to demand their surrender. Before he reached the police station, the attacking party were received with a volley from shot guns, of perhaps seventy-five men, and immediately returned the fire. The men on duty retreated, and the police, rushing in, captured the station and seven prisoners. It was then ascertained that M. K. Chanler, a citizen, had been mortally wounded, a ball penetrating his abdomen. Another man named Ernest Swandes was struck in the arm with a buckshot.

11 00 A. M.—The Kellogg metropolitan police, armed as infantry, have just taken possession of Odd Fellows' Hall, where the McEnery Legislature have heretofore met. Mr. J. C. Mouncour, Speaker of the House, and other members who were in the hall at the time, were taken to the first precinct police station. About one hundred metropolitans occupy Lafayette Square. There is considerable excitement, and large crowds are gathering about the square and Odd Fellows' Hall.

NEW ORLEANS, March 6.—In reply to questions by Governor McEnery, General Emory declares that the seizure of the Odd Fellows hall was without his knowledge; that he has received instructions to recognize the state government represented by the Hon Wm. P. Kellogg, and will consider it his duty to use all the force of the United States at his disposal to repress violence toward the Kellogg administration.

Large numbers of people this forenoon visited the scene of the affray last night. The effect of the fire of cannister is visible in two or three places, several of the iron columns of the balcony of the building corner St Peter and Charles streets being perforated, and one being knocked down and broken into splinters. The railing of Jackson square is also broken in several places, and here and there the buildings near it chipped. The trees in the square are fairly riddled with bullets and the ground strewn with broken branches.

About fifty citizens or militia who participated in last night's affray were arrested and charged with violating the act of congress passed April 20, 1871. They were taken before a U. S. commissioner and released on $1,000 bail each. The city is very quiet this evening.

NEW ORLEANS, March 6.—Moncure and other members of the fusion legislature was arrested this morning by the Metropolitan police, but were released soon afterwards. The fusion Legislature this afternoon met at the St. James Hotel and passed a joint resolution protesting in the name of the people of the State against the interference of the military of the United States Government in capturing the State troops, and against supporting the city police in the seizure of its State House.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 6.

SENATE.

The Senate met at noon. All the Senators being present.

Messrs. Jones of Nevada, Ferry of Connecticut, and Wadleigh of Vermont, were sworn in.

When Mr. Wadleigh rose up to be sworn in, Geo E. Spencer, of Alabama, whose election is contested by Sykes, offered himself to be sworn in, whereupon Mr Bayard objected. Mr. Bayard said that Spencer was aware that his seat would be contested, and that the oath should not be administered until the Senate pass upon his own and his contestant's credentials.

The question of swearing Spencer was discussed by a number of Senators. Mr. Hamlin, from committee appointed to wait upon the President, reported that it had performed that duty, and the President's reply was that as at present advised he would have no communication to make to the Senate except in the forms of nominations.

Mr. Morton offered the following, and said he would call it up to-morrow:

Resolved, That Alexander Caldwell was not duly and legally elected to a seat in the Senate of the United States by the Legislature of Kansas.

A long debate took place on the admission of the contesting Senators from Alabama.

The Senate adjourned without action.

WASHINGTON, March, 6.—Joseph B. Stewart brought suit against the speaker and sergeant-at-arms of the House of Representatives to-day, for $100,000, each being sued separately, for false imprisonment. The suit is not aimed against the speaker and sergeant-at-arms personally, though so stated on the record, but is designed to test the power of the speaker to imprison citizens for matters not involving a question of privilege. The case will be heard before the United States district court.

General Emory telegraphs to General Sherman: I think the announcement of the President's order to me of last night will effect a permanent settlement of the trouble.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Diplomatic nominations were not sent in, as expected, to-day. There are understood to be about twenty changes proposed in the more important places. The principal nominations, it is expected, will be for Berlin, but no other first-class mission will be touched. China, the Sandwich Islands, Hayti and most of the South American Governments are mentioned.

It is understood that a prominent Minnesota Republican is to be sent to Venzeula in place of Gen. Pile.

Gen. Osterhaus, Consul at Lyons, has asked for a transfer to a German consulate, being a native of one of the German Provinces. His request will be complied with Changes will be made in several Consul Generals, notably Shanghai, Calcutta and Frankfort.

Senor Ricz, the Cuban special agent, is daily expected in town. Reports among the sympathizers assert that the President has determined to show a more directly friendly front than heretofore, as the condition of Spanish affairs is such that it is considered probable an occasion may arise at any moment to take decided steps.

Rumors are afloat that an extra session may be called during the summer, but it has no foundation other than a belief that Cuban affairs may render it necessary.

The President, it is well understood, has a strong desire to signalize the advent of his second term by some moral aid and comfort toward struggling Cuba and it is stated on good authority that the original draft of the inaugural took decided ground indicating the President's opinion quite plainly, that the unsuccessful attempt of Spain to suppress the Cuban rebellion demanded some action on the part of civilized nations looking towards bringing about a cessation of the horrible warfare going on there; but this portion was modified at the last Cabinet meetings.

FROM ILLINOIS.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 6.—In the Senate, this morning, the Bill dividing the State into judicial circuits was debated at length. Various amendments were voted down, and the bill was finally ordered to a third reading.

Mr. Waite's Senate bill (115), enabling parties to criminal suits to testify in their own behalf, was read a third time, and, after considerable opposition and discussion, was passed—yeas, 26, nays, 15.

HOUSE.

In the House, this morning, Messrs. Rountree, Jones and Moore successively rose to a question of privilege. The first named gentleman complained that the correspondent of the Chicago Tribune had grossly misrepresented members of the House by stating that they had drawn extraordinary quantities of stationery for the use of the committees of which they were Chairmen. He (Rountree) had been charged by this correspondent with drawing stationery to the amount of over two hundred dollars, when in fact he had not drawn a cent's worth. He had voted against the committees to draw stationery, and, not choosing to be inconsistent with that vote, had furnished his own stationery. Messrs Jones and Moore also refuted the charges that had been made against them.

Bills introduced: By Mr. Gray, to regulate practice in courts of record, also to authorize women to testify in certain cases; also in relation to contracts under seal; by Mr. Carpenter, to punish all officials for intoxication while in discharge of duty; by Mr. Warner, to regulate the sales of poisons.

Mr. Snow, from the Education Committee, reported back the bill for doing away with the two-mill tax for educational purposes, and made an eloquent appeal for the rejection of the bill, but without avail, for the House ordered it to first reading. Mr Snow also reported the bill to amend the School law and defining the qualifications of teachers, recommending its rejection. The House refused to concur, and the bill was read a first time.

Mr. Branson, from the Committee on State Institutions, reported back bills appropriating $75,000 for rebuilding the Institution for the Blind at Jacksonville, $100,000 for the Deaf and Dumb Institution, $86,000 for the Southern Normal University, $160,000 for the south wing of the Insane Hospital at Elgin, and $20,000 for heating and ventilating the same.

MATTOON, ILL., March 6.—A Mrs. Langston, a widow lady aged fifty years, and her adopted daughter, ten years old, who lived alone near Paradise, in this county, were found in their bed this morning dead, and with their throats horribly mutilated. The bodies were nicely covered up in the bed clothing, and every circumstance points to the fact that a dastardly murder has been committed, and that the culprits have tried to obliterate all traces of their crime. The most intense excitement prevails, while a Coroner's inquest, largely attended by excited neighbors, is being held, and every effort will be made to discover the perpetrators.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Secretary Boutwell personally requests that publicity be made of his right and intention to issue the whole or a part of the $44,000,000 legal tender, now held as a reserve, whenever in his opinion it becomes necessary.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 6.—The Legislative Committee to investigate Pomeroy will report to-day. The majority report, signed by the Chairman and three members of the committee, will report that the charges of bribery have been sustained by abundant proof. The minority report, signed by three members, will say that the charges were not proven.

York was in his place in the Senate yesterday. He intends to push the criminal prosecution of Pomeroy and thinks the law will convict and punish him for bribery.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, March 6.—The Government officials last night, having received orders, proceeded to Court Theater, in this city, and prevented the performance. The theater was closed up by the police and no one allowed to enter the building. The reason for this action of the Government was the rendition of a burlesque imitation of the members of the English Cabinet. This act on the part of the authorities has created considerable agitation in theatrical circles.

One View of Classical Education—IV.—He stumbles about in the labyrinths of ancient darkness picking up dead mens' bones and excavating bung holes that Alexander's dust had stopped—supposed to be an empty bourbon keg in which that ancient was drowned—though Shakspeare, not being a classical scholar, did not mean that. He plods on through four or six years more of a college course, and if he has not a great deal of force of character, not to say genius, he graduates at twenty, a pale, spectacled, automatic, technical routinist with, as an offset for his lost enthusiasm and mettlesome fancy, a gentlemanly acquaintance with Cæsar's musty ghost and Plato's misty philosophy, and has come forth from his classical arid a first class classical bore. The world, henceforth, is supposed to be a green cheese, in which the human maggot is to bore his way, turning neither to the right nor left, each individual maggot fitted to the same sized hole, and screwed in with the persistence of a pod auger.

The Church, who boldly proclaims herself in the van of civilization, is mainly responsible for this tyrannical conservatism. Classical youths, who are sent to Sunday school by their pious parents, and are forbidden Gibbon, Hume and Voltaire, pour over the free and easy moralities of heathen deities; and called missionaries are prepared for a gospel of purity by Anacreon's odes and Ovid's metamorphosis. There is the grossest inconsistency in this, for if our booksellers should vend literature of the same type, stripped of the sacredness that pertains to antiquity, they would justly become candidates for fines and imprisonments.

Died, Last evening at 5 o'clock, P. M., MRS. SCHWAB, wife of Mr F. Schwab, of this city

THE first choral wedding ever celebrated in Washington took place at St Paul's Church, in that city, recently The bridal party preceded by a processional cross and twenty-four robed choristers and the officiating priest, marched through the main aisle singing a wedding hymn. On arriving at the altar, which was surrounded with numerous lighted candles, the bride and groom elect knelt in silent prayer; after which the ceremony of the Episcopal Church was performed

CITY DEPARTMENT.

...Mrs. Scott Siddons.

...Remember that Mrs. Scott Siddons reads at the Opera House to-night.

...The April election is rapidly approaching. Announce yourself; $3 in advance.

...A large assortment of chromos, framed, at 50 cents each, at Lapham's Art Gallery. 2t

...If any man says this isn't spring, smite him on the snoot.

...Elder Semple, of the Champaign District, preached at Stapp's Chapel last evening.

...Mr. J. B. Hatch has just returned from an extended trip through Texas, having spent nearly the entire winter in that State. He is charmed with the soil and climate, and thinks of going there to live.

...On the ground that our climate has permanently changed, and that henceforth we may expect to be visited by severe winters, an extensive builder suggests that houses in future be erected with double window sashes, to be put on in winter, as in Canada and other cold countries. A great saving in fuel is effected by such fittings.

...The new law of this State for the election of township and district school officers goes into effect for the first time next month. The election of School Trustees, etc., will take place on the second Saturday of April. The Trustees of Schools are required, at least ten days previously, to order said election, and the Township Treasurer is required to post notices of the time and place of the election in at least five of the most public places in the township. School officers not having a copy of the law governing these elections would do well to send to Hon. Newton Bateman, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Springfield, Ill., who has issued a circular embodying the provisions of the law.

Circuit Court.—The case of Miller vs. Thompson was decided in favor of the defendant.

The case of Mrs. Connely vs. T., W. & W. R. R. is now on trial. Our citizens no doubt remember the circumstances of the killing of Mr. Connelly last August, at the junction of the different branches of the T. W. & W. R. R., just west of this city.—Mrs. Connelly claims damages to the amount of $5,000.

Fine Him.—A man (?) whose name we have, and which we will gladly give to the police officers, was yesterday guilty of an act that should not pass by unnoticed. He placed two dogs in a position in which they could not escape, and in which they must fight. After witnessing these brutes fight for several hours, and finding they were almost exhausted, he killed them by beating out their brains on the sidewalk.

Such brutality should not be tolerated in a civilized community, and we now ask that our police authorities see that he receives the punishment he deserves for his brutal act.

Insurance.—The Boston Bulletin, in an article on the ordinary methods of insurance, says: "Let us have policies so drawn that when a man insures his stock or his house, pays the premium asked and gives the insurer every opportunity to examine the property and decide in advance upon its value, he can, in case of its destruction, go and get the full amount of its insurance, and not be insulted by offers to 'settle,' based on fine print conditions, purposely so printed that they will not be read. Companies should be protected against fraud; but when a man makes an honorable loss, he should be honestly paid."

Meeting.—We to-day print a call for a citizens' meeting, to be held Saturday evening next at the court house, for the purpose of selecting candidates for the offices of Supervisor and Assistant Supervisor. These are important offices, and all who feel an interest in the welfare of the township should be present.

Fashion Notes.—The polonaise promises to continue being worn all through the spring.

Jewelry made of jet and cut steel is the proper thing for half mourning.

Paris is doing the quiet and home like style of entertainment this winter.

The latest in chatelaines is of tortoise shell with a beautiful vinaigrette tortoise shell, glass and gold.

The two new dress materials for spring wear are Indian camel's hair and vivogne, a light, soft, woolen fabric.

The new Trianon fans, besides being very stylish, are extremely comfortable and effective as zephyr compellers.

Lace handkerchiefs are growing too common among the wealthy to be fashionable among the servant girls of Decater.

Long trains are now worn only for occasions of great ceremony. For ordinary evening dress the demi train is in favor.

Public Installation.—The first public installation given by the Beaumanoir Commandary of Knight Templars, No. 9, occurred at the Opera House last night.—The house was well filled with the friends and members of the Masonic order, and the entire installation was of the most impressive nature.

At 8 p. m the Knight Templars, with their elegant uniforms, filed into the room, the elected officers taking their seats on the stage. The ceremonies of the installation were opened by a short speech by Sir Knight A. A. Murray, explaining the object of the order, and stating that the ceremonies of the installation would be conducted by Past Grand Commander Gorin.

Prayer was then offered by Sir Knight D. P. Bunn, followed by music by the choir.

The officers elect were then duly installed with the appropriate ceremonies. Questions and responses from the Past Grand Commander, Grand Marshal, and the members of the order.

The following were the officers installed:

A. A. Murray, Eminent Commander;
D. P. Elwood, Generalissimo;
John Quinlan, Capt. General;
G. W. Bright, Prelate;
J. H. Babbitt, Senior Warden;
M. Y. Givler, Junior Warden;
S. F. Greer, Treasurer;
J. S. Hand, Recorder;
J. N. Baker, Standard bearer;
C. M. Imboden, Warden;
W. F. Gipson, Sword bearer;
Wm. Towling, Captain of the Guard.

This portion of the installation was most impressive and attended with the deepest solemnity.

An address pertaining to the order was then delivered by Sir Knight Rev. N. P. Heath. The address was very interesting, even to the uninitiated, and was, we suppose, peculiarly beautiful and expressive to the members of the order.

The regalia of the Sir Knights consisted of a black dress suit, red belt, black hat, surmounted by a white plume, each of the officers having a peculiar insignia. The swords were of the most elegant patterns, particularly so in the case of the officers.

About forty-five Sir Knights were present, the members from Maroa, Macon, Bement, and Monticello taking part in the ceremonies.

What took place after their departure from the Opera House this deponent saith not, the after ceremonies being for the Sir Knights and families alone.

CITIZENS' MEETING.

DECATUR, ILL., March 6, 1873.

Fire.—Flames were discovered issuing from the roof of the Central Iron Works at about 6:30 last evening. The alarm was soon given, and "the boys they ran this way and the fireman ran that." The hose carts were soon on the way to the fire, but the Hook and Ladder Company succeeded in getting as far as the corner of Franklin and William streets, where the whole concern refused to move either backward or forward; but after some of the members and many of the bystanders had indulged in a few useless adjectives, and "a strong pull and a long pull and a pull all together," and the machine was returned to the engine house. But we digress: the fire was in the foundry portion of the building, and originated from the chimney of the cupalo. A small portion of the roof was burned, but the fire was extinguished before any considerable damage was done.

Lecture.—We are glad to announce that Rev. J. Walk, of Memphis, Tenn., will lecture at the Opera House in this city next Tuesday evening. Rev. Walk is one of the most accomplished and influential of the Christian clergy, and we feel confident that he will have a full house. The subject of his lecture will be "Spurgeon," the greatest of living preachers. Mr. Walk, while on his late visit to Europe, spent much time in learning the peculiar characteristics of this great preacher.

Admission, 25 cents. [m7-td

Tickets for sale at the bookstores.

Georgia Minstrels.—Let it be remembered that this, the greatest of minstrel troupes, will appear in this city on Monday evening, March 10th. This is the only slave troupe in existence. Come one, come all, and see the Georgia Minstrels—the kings of minstrelsy.

Mrs. Scott-Siddons.—It is hardly necessary for us to say anything more of the appearance of this lady in our city to-night. Her reputation as an elocutionist, personator of Shakspeare, and one of the most beautiful women now living, is world wide, and we are confident that she will have a full house.

New Officers.—The City Council held a meeting yesterday afternoon for the purpose of canvassing the vote at the late city election. The result as given in the REPUBLICAN was exactly correct. The new city officials will be duly installed on the 24th of this month.

For Rent.—A two-story brick dwelling house, on the west side of College square. Enquire at Mrs. E. J. Ferry's ladies' shoe store, Opera Block. [m3-tf

The Diamond Glasses,

MANUFACTURED BY

J. E. Spencer & Co., N. Y.,

Which are now offered to the public, are pronounced by all the celebrated Opticians of the world to be the MOST PERFECT, natural, artificial help to the human eye ever known.

They are ground under their own supervision, from minute Crystal Pebbles, melted together, and derive their name, "Diamond," on account of their hardness and brilliancy.

THE SCIENTIFIC PRINCIPLE on which they are constructed brings the core or centre of the lens directly in front of the eye, producing a clear and distinct vision, as in the natural, healthy sight, and preventing all unpleasant sensations, such as glimmering and wavering of sight, dizziness, &c., peculiar to all others in use.

They are mounted in the finest manner in frames of the best quality, of all materals used for that purpose.

THEIR FINISH AND DURABILITY CANNOT BE SURPASSED.

CAUTION.—None genuine unless bearing their trade mark stamped on every frame.

Harper's Magazine

Notices of the Press:

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudice or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth and literary culture, has kept pace with, and if it has not led the time, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. VINEGAR BITTERS

J. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & Co. Druggists Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 and 34 Commerce Street, N. Y.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

They are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the Regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They Invigorate the Stomach and Stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors, Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Scarcely a distinguished physician on the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy channels of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No System of Medicine, no vermifuge, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

J. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & Co. Druggists and Gen. Agents, San Francisco, California and 32 and 34 Commerce Street, New York.
